Forecast for Sunday 22 Aug 2021

Weather: Cloudy overnight but mostly dry although staying misty with persistent low cloud. Cloud beginning to thin during the morning with some brightness by lunchtime. During the afternoon there will be some sunny spells but also a few showers. A mainly dry and partly cloudy evening.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 700m: Initially 10% however extensive low cloud will lift and thin during the morning and by afternoon 80% with only patches of lower cloud affecting some summits.

Visibility: Visibility will be quite poor for the early part of the day with extensive low cloud from 300m and above. As cloud bases lift and cloud becomes more scattered visibility will improve and only dip in any afternoon showers. By afternoon there will be patches of cloud around 600m but generally good views around the Mournes.
